encounters with difference are the measure of faith as how a person of one faith approaches persons of other faiths reveals the heart of religious conviction christian congregations are often ill equipped to respond to differing religious perspectives most are hesitant many are prejudiced in the face of difference offers a basis for constructive response demonstrating how one can honor people of another faith by living fully into one s own faith william sachs examines how christians can maximize their spiritual growth through a genuine exchange of ideas and inspiration with those of others faiths focusing on encounters between christians and muslims by providing a clear and concrete blueprint for congregational leadership in new social circumstances sachs charts a course for overcoming major religious prejudice he demonstrates how bridges can be built by applying the ideals of love of god and love of neighbor and how faithful people can translate religious ideals into reconciling realities narrative identity is the product of seven years of research among muslim immigrants living in america this book will help you to understand the role that stories have in shaping how we see the world ourselves and others by exploring the process of identity formation for one of the most feared and least understood muslim peoples in the world the pashtun the pashtun are most often associated with the taliban and for harboring osama bin laden after the attacks on 9 11 for centuries these people have been accustomed to war and ethnic tribal and religious violence in the regions of afghanistan and pakistan as a result the pashtun are also one of the largest ethnic groups migrating throughout the west more recently their identity has been reduced to the violent actions of islamic terrorism committed by a few pashtun immigrants living in western nations this study explores the various factors that impact identity formation for pashtun immigrants including transnationalism social media and the ongoing negative media attention concerning islam and muslims this book helps readers understand the nuances of identity formation which are critical to consider in order to avoid the crude categorizations so often associated with identity politics ultimate reality is often characterized in terms of what are thought to be a variety of incompatible concepts like god dao brahman sunyata etc matthew s lopresti suggests that if we shift to a process metaphysics our horizon of pluralistic understanding shifts as well allowing multiple religious ultimates effective religious practices and their respective salvific projects to simultaneously exist without contradiction religious pluralism towards a comparative metaphysics of religion examines the plausibility of a genuine religious pluralism arguing in favor of the authenticity of a plurality of the world s major religious traditions responses to the philosophical challenges of religious diversity have often been misidentified as forms of relativism or pluralisms so this book provides a more robust taxonomy to encourage the field to be more uniform and precise lopresti argues that john b cobb jr s whiteheadian based approach known as deep religious pluralism functions as a non relativistic basis for a meta theology of world religions through discussions of classical and contemporary south asian philosophy western analytic philosophy and process philosophy in addition to the writings of joseph ratzinger pope benedict xvi lopresti argues that a proper engagement with religious pluralism requires intimate knowledge of western and non western traditions
